

ALL O most merciful God, who hast given Thine only-begotten Son to die for us, have mercy upon us and for His sake grant us remission of all our sins; and by Thy Holy Spirit increase in us true knowledge of Thee and of Thy will and true obedience to Thy Word, to the end that by Thy grace we may come to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PASTOR Almighty God, our heavenly Father, has had mercy upon us and has given His only Son to die for us and for His sake forgives us all our sins. To those who believe in His name He gives power to become the sons of God and has promised them His Holy Spirit. He who believes and is baptized shall be saved. Grant this, Lord, unto us all.

CONGR. (sing) Amen. (congregation is seated)

THE INTROIT

Having received the Lord's forgiveness, we are glad to enter into His courts with praise and thanksgiving. This entrance is made in the Introit with the Lord's own Word, often from the Psalms.

P: All the earth shall worship You:

C: And shall sing to You, O God.

P: They shall sing to Your name:

C: You who are the Most High.

P: Make a joyful noise to God, all you lands:

C: Sing forth the honor of His name; make His praise glorious!

THE BIBLE LESSONS

God speaks to us.

The First Bible Reading:

Romans 10:11-17 For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. 13 For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved." 14 How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? 15 And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, Who bring glad tidings of good things!" 16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?" 17 So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

PASTOR Here ends the First Bible Reading. We continue with the responsive reading of:

THE GRADUAL

The Gradual is a "Bridge of praise" that links the Old Testament with the New Testament.

P: The heathen shall fear the name of the Lord:

C: And all the kings of the earth Your glory.

P: When the Lord shall build up Zion:

C: He shall appear in His glory. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

P: The Lord reigns; let the earth rejoice:

C: Let the multitude of the isles be glad of it. Hallelujah!

CONGR. (sing) Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

PASTOR The second Bible Reading comes from Matthew chapter 5, beginning there in the 13th verse.

CONGR. (sing) Glory be to Thee, O Lord!

The Second Bible Reading:

Matthew 5:13-16 "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men. 14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 "Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

PASTOR Here ends the Second Bible Reading.

CONGR. (sing) Praise be to Thee, O Christ!

THE OFFERTORY

In this prayer we OFFER God our hearts, asking Him for that best of all gifts, the Holy Spirit.

(Hymnal, pages 12-13) (sing)

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from Thy presence
And take not Thy Holy Spirit from me
Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation
And uphold me with Thy free spirit. Amen.

THE OFFERING OF THANKFUL HEARTS

In tangible evidence of our gratitude, we offer the Lord the gift of our money, remembering that He has first given to us that we might have to give to Him. While the ushers present our offerings at the Lord's Altar, we stand and sing the offering hymn 404:1

For all He gives thee day by day?

Oh, hast thou in thy gift a favor

That can delight and please Him? – Say!

The best of off'rings He requires: Thy heart it is that He desires.

MISSION CALANDARS We consider it a great blessing to present to you the CLC Missions Calendar for the year of our LORD 2010. It features photographs and information about the people and places where the LROD has led the CLC to help proclaim the Gospel of Christ crucified. It also provides a daily Bible reading devotional program, and identifies Sunday's and holy days of the church year. We hope that it serves the members of our sister churches overseas, as well as the people of the CLC-USA, to have a closer bond of fellowship with each other. Copies of the calendar are available in the hallway for $3.

MISSION WORK

- An ocean liner was wrecked on a dangerous reef off the New England coast. When the captain of the Coast Guard gave a command to attempt a rescue, one of the young seamen turned to him and said: "Sir, the wind is offshore; the tide is running out. We can go out, but we can never come back." But the captain replied: "Launch the boat. We have to go out. We don't have to come back." -- Our Lord says "Go!" He says nothing about coming back.
- Christ says to every lost sinner "Come!" and to every converted sinner "Go!"
- There's not enough darkness in the whole world to put out the light of a single candle. Witness for Christ!
- "If men will perish, at least let them perish with our arms about their knees begging them to be turned and saved. And if men will plunge into hell, at least let them plunge over our prostrate bodies begging them to be turned and saved." --Spurgeon

NEWS FROM MISSIONARY DAVE KOENIG – SOUTH AFRICA

Denis Mulumba has been trying to register a church with the South African government, but to no avail so far. He has found a friend who is willing to go with him in visits to people to try to gather a congregation. Being from Congo, the South African government keeps him at arms length until they are sure he is integrating himself in their society. He is taking a university course to help him set up a website where he can post our teachings in essay and publications translated into French. His goal is still to gather a congregation of French speaking people around the Word. His visa problem was solved thanks to the Lord so that now he has a two year visa to be in South Africa. Pray that the website can be up and going and be a means to reach out and that the two men will continue to be zealous in going to people about our wonderful Lord Jesus.

50th ANNIVERSARY Luther Memorial Church will be celebrating it's 50th anniversary in March of 2010. The formal organization of the congregation took place on March 20, 1960. In our last Voters' Meeting, the "LM Sign Fund" was designated as our 50th anniversary fund and the congregation is encouraged to give their thank offerings to the LORD for 50 years of His grace through this fund. Volunteers are needed to help arrange and organize our 50th anniversary festivities. Please speak with the Pastor if you'd like to help.

THE CHURCH AT WORK Our Lord God gave the commission to the Church that it should preach the Gospel to every creature. He admonishes us that we teach "them to observe all things, whatsoever I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:20). The Church is made up of individual believers in Christ Jesus. So the commission to share the Gospel - in this is included the whole truth of God's Holy Word- is the responsibility of each individual. Each of us can share God's love with our neighbor, a relative, and a friend as opportunity is given to us. Anyone of us who knows and believes in the heart that Jesus has borne our iniquity and sin, died in our place on the cross, and rose again from the dead has all the knowledge that is needed to tell others, "Jesus loves you." But to expedite this on a broader scale we have joined together in our congregation to worship together in spirit and in truth; we assist one another in our individual calls as we mutually witness in our community. Further, our congregation has been distinctly blessed to have been led to be a member of the Church of the Lutheran Confession (CLC). With the brethren in the CLC our ability to carry out the Lord's commission is further enhanced as we pray and participate with our brethren in the mission work of the CLC. Every two years we gather with our brethren in convention of the church body. Between conventions as time and distance allow there are delegate conferences, as well as area pastoral conferences. The purpose of these conferences is to study together and to learn together, as well as mutually encourage one another in the great commission that the Lord has given us. Our district pastoral conference, the GLPC – the Great Lakes Pastoral Conference) held here last Tuesday and Wednesday was such an opportunity. What a blessing we have in the CLC! We did not get together to discuss the political scene in the world. We did not get together to debate how homosexuals can be incorporated into the ministry of the church, or what our stance should be about homosexual and lesbian "marriages." We did not promote programs or discuss how to make our churches grow faster. We were not engaged in church politics, and all the other extracurricular "monkey" business that dominates so many church meetings today. We had a study from the Psalms. We studied and reviewed the biblical principles Christian Freedom, Adiaphora, and Private Absolution. We enjoyed a continued study of the Life of Martin Luther. We discussed matters related to the work of the. We also discussed how and what we can do in balancing our opportunities with our financial and manpower capabilities. We heard a report from the foreign mission field. All our essays and discussions are studied with the intent of inquiring, "What saith the Lord?" We had a worship service in which in unity of heart and mind we mutually confessed our sins before the Lord, and from His gracious hand received the absolution of all sins through the Sacrament of His body and blood. God is good!

The First Bible Reading for Mission Festival Sunday Romans 10:11-17

The Second Bible Reading: Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus cures our weak and feeble human attempts to be His Missionaries. In these verses He does not tell us to measure up to what we should be, He clearly identifies WHO WE ARE! The Gospel message empowers us to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. We read...
