THE WORLD SAYS:
“Death is the end.”

GOD SAYS:
“You will live eternally—the question is where?”

Jesus said to his disciples, “Don’t be worried! Have faith in God and have faith in me. There are many rooms in my Father’s house. I wouldn’t tell you this, unless it was true. I am going there to prepare a place for each of you.”

JOHN 14:1–2 CBV

TRUTH.

The world prefers to ignore death because the world simply lacks an adequate answer to death’s question: What lies beyond the grave?

Non-Christians have little to hope for in the face of death. No surprise here—they have never grasped the purpose of life. Their ambitions and values crumble under vague notions of a hereafter expressed in platitudes and quasi-religious sentiments. As they see it, death is the end. Right—the end of human knowledge. God in Jesus Christ can see what lies beyond the grave because He’s been there.

The certainty of heaven and hell—of salvation and damnation—stems from the Bible’s clear and repeated references to both places. In God’s Word, He clearly and unequivocally speaks of hell and damnation awaiting those who refuse His gospel invitation. Does He send people to hell? No. People send themselves there by choosing self over God.

The Bible with equal clarity and firmness speaks of heaven and eternal life in God’s presence for those who come to Him through Jesus Christ. Heaven has nothing to do with how good you are or anything you have done for Him or will do for Him in the future. It has to do with grace—God’s grace to you through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. By grace through faith in Jesus, you have the kingdom of heaven.

Knowing with certainty what’s ahead for you, you can confidently and joyfully serve Him right now. He has freed you from the condemnation of sin. He has given your life meaning and purpose. He has opened your eyes to His Spirit at work in you. You have nothing to fear from death because your faith has put your life—your physical life and your spiritual life—in His hands.

If the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands.
